Full Stack Software Engineer building scalable web and mobile applications with TypeScript, Next.js, NestJS, React Native (Expo), and PostgreSQL/MongoDB. Experienced in production deployments, real-time systems, payment integrations, and AI/ML product features.

EXPERIENCE:

Boomscore : Mid-Level Full-Stack Engineer (Contract)

Lagos, Nigeria | Contract

- Built a comprehensive admin dashboard with user management table featuring pagination, multi-field filtering (status, subscription plan), bulk actions (ban, suspend, activate, delete), and per-user detail views with subscription and activity analytics using Next.js (TypeScript).
- Implemented a three-tier role-based authorization system (USER / MODERATOR / ADMIN / SUPER_ADMIN) with JWT access + refresh token authentication, multi-device session tracking (up to 10 sessions), device-level logout, and automatic super admin promotion via environment config.
- Developed the full subscription and billing module three-tier plans (FREE / PRO / ULTRA) with per-day usage limits, Paystack payment gateway integration, webhook signature validation, invoice generation with PDF export, billing stats aggregation, and scheduled plan downgrades effective at billing cycle end.
- Built the account management suite: profile editing, password/email change, OTP-based email verification, account deletion, usage dashboard showing daily limits vs. consumption, and invoice history with filtering.
- Created the betting slip system save slips with multiple selections, automatic status resolution (PENDING → BOOM / LOSS / VOID), slip analytics (boom rate, win/loss streak tracking, per-selection confidence), and booking code display with copy support.
- Contributed backend GraphQL resolvers and NestJS services for users, authentication, payments, betslips, and predictions including rate-throttled mutation endpoints and subscription limit enforcement across the API.
- Integrated Socket.io real-time updates for live match data, and Apollo Client caching strategy on the frontend for optimized GraphQL query performance.

Simul Management Solutions: Full-Stack & Mobile Engineer (Remote) United Kingdom | Remote

- Architected and built SimServiceHub a production two-sided artisan marketplace web and mobile app from scratch using React for the web and React Native (Expo), TypeScript, and NativeWind, serving both customers and service providers.

- Engineered a dual role-based architecture with separate navigation flows for customer and artisan user types, each with their own tab layouts, feature sets, and API integrations across 20+ screens.
- Implemented real-time WebSocket messaging with typing indicators, message read status, exponential backoff reconnection logic (up to 5 retries), and graceful REST fallback.
- Built a full push notification system using Expo Notifications supporting with dynamic deep linking, Android notification channels, and platform-specific handling for iOS and Android.
- Developed a 3-step job posting wizard with AI-assisted job description generation.
- Designed a real-time bidding/quote system covering the full job lifecycle.
- Integrated an AI-powered support chatbot (SIMI) with RAG-based Q&A and human escalation flow.
- Developed additional production platform: Altan-Infinity (custom footwear platform), Blueberry Zanzibar (Touring website), and company blog/CMS
